

Experience-based menu participation written consent

When I participate in various experience-based menus (called this experience-based menu as follows) which the experience-based village hosts tightly yes, I participate below after an agreement and am crowded and do it.

(note)

1. Of this experience-based menu promise it to face the health condition of the participant in a state without unreasonableness on participating.

2. During this experience-based menu participation, I recognize that an accident, an injury, an attack may be generated to a participant. I entrust all to the experience-based menu person concerned about emergency measures by any chance when it occurs.

In addition, I do not hold it to account for the sponsor, facilities side about the expense of the physical and mental injury that occurred and medical expenses, others at all on this occasion.

In addition, when I inflict an injury on another person, the participant has the responsibility and requests an expense or the compensation for damages about injuries from a sponsor, the facilities side none.

3. The participant acts according to the instructions of the experience-based menu person concerned, coach on participating in this experience-based menu. But, to the participant who cannot obey instructions, please retire your seat in the middle of an experience-based menu.

4. Please note that you do not refund it.

5. I perform valuables during experience-based menu participation, other baggage management in the participant.

About theft and the loss, I do not hold it to account for the sponsor, facilities side regardless of self-reproach, other responsibility at all.

6. About the personal information of the participant who acquired it, I limit it to the range that is necessary for the operation of this experience-based menu on participating in this experience-based menu and shall do the acquisition, the use.